

Recognizing the Work of Innovative Arizona Teaching Artists

The Teaching Artist Award

is designed to recognize Teaching Artists who advance the arts learning and teaching artist field in Arizona through the use of innovation and best practices in their work in school and community settings.

Applicants apply by presenting a finished project or phase of a project that directly benefited residents of Arizona and demonstrates clear execution of an innovative plan. Projects must have been completed within the last year (May 1, 2008 - July 15, 2009) and produced documentable results, including work samples to share with the field, evidence of learning goals reached, and assessment and evaluation components of the project.

AWARD

One award of $2,500. No match is required.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must be juried and in good standing on the Teaching Artist Roster to apply. Download the Teaching Artist Award Application Guidelines for the full list of eligibility and requirements.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

Innovative Approach to the Arts Learning and Teaching Artist Field
Artistic Quality of Project
Impact on Arts Based Learning

TIMELINE

Guide/Application Launch	July 28, 2009
Application Deadline	September 3, 2009
▪ Online Materials – MIDNIGHT
▪ Signature Page – POSTMARKED 5:00PM
Panel Review	December 2009
Award Announcement	January 2010

Additional information, including the Teaching Artist Award Guide and FAQ, the Online Application Tutorial, and all application materials can be found online at <http://www.azarts.gov/teachingartistroster/award.htm>.

DEADLINE TO SUBMIT APPLICATIONS:
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 2009

